I am writing to express my strong interest in the entry level audit associate position at EY as advertised. The combination of my skills in critical thinking, teamwork, leadership, communication, professionalism, and commitment to equity and inclusion makes me an ideal candidate for this role.

My background in accounting has provided me with a solid foundation in critical thinking. I have consistently demonstrated the ability to analyze complex problems, evaluate multiple perspectives, and develop innovative solutions. This skill is crucial as it requires a keen ability to assess challenges and make informed decisions that drive positive outcomes.

Throughout my academic and professional journey, I have actively engaged in teamwork, understanding its pivotal role in achieving shared goals in my internship and school projects. I believe that effective collaboration enhances creativity and efficiency. My intern experience at Lutron working with diverse teams has allowed me to adapt to various working styles, contribute my unique insights, and foster an environment of open dialogue where every voice is heard.

Leadership has been a defining aspect of my character. I have taken the initiative to lead group projects in the classroom, as well as my college cross country team, guiding them toward success with a combination of vision, strategic planning, and motivational skills. I am enthusiastic about empowering others to reach their full potential, which aligns with the ethos of leadership at EY.

Exceptional communication skills are essential in today's interconnected world. I have honed my ability to convey complex ideas concisely and clearly to a wide range of audiences. Whether through written reports, presentations, or interpersonal interactions, I prioritize effective communication to ensure seamless understanding and collaboration among team members.

Professionalism is a cornerstone of my work ethic. I understand the importance of integrity, reliability, and accountability in contributing to a positive work environment. I approach challenges with a solution-oriented mindset, maintaining a high standard of quality and ethical conduct in all that I do.

Furthermore, I am deeply committed to promoting equity and inclusion. I recognize the value of diverse perspectives and am dedicated to fostering an environment where everyone feels valued, respected, and empowered to contribute their best. I am excited to join PWC's efforts to champion diversity and create a workplace that celebrates differences.

In conclusion, I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to bring my critical thinking, teamwork, leadership, communication, professionalism, and dedication to equity and inclusion at EY. I am confident that my skills and values align seamlessly with the objectives of the Audit Associate Position, and I am eager to contribute to the continued success of your team.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my qualifications align with your needs in greater detail. Please feel free to contact me at 484-719-2564 or shaneartis3@gmail.com.

Sincerely,
Shane Artis
